FROM BON JOVI TO BROADWAY

COMMENTARY FROM THE PUBLISHER, Chris Gero: "It was New York City in December—very cold and pouring down rain. I remember David came over from New Jersey for the photo shoot, which we had arranged to take place at Studio Instrument Rentals (SIR). David is a member of one of the most successful rock bands in history—Bon Jovi—so when he arrived with no entourage, it was quite surprising and refreshing. Since the Yamaha DX7 era in the early '80s, David has been a dedicated Yamaha artist. On this particular shoot, we were photographing him with a PSR200, which he was using to compose musical theater pieces in his time off from the band."
