

THE ELECTRIC JEFF LYNNE

COMMENTARY FROM CHRIS: "The photo shoot took place in Jeff's home in Beverly Hills. This was a huge deal and quite rare because he is one of the most private people in the industry, but it was an even bigger deal to me because he is one of my biggest musical inspirations. He was very humble and accommodating. He showed us around all of this stuff that he's collected over the years—memorabilia from various tours and records that he's worked on. It was very surreal to be in a place where so much great music has been made."
